Excerpt from Remembered Events: Concerning the Life and Services of Benjamin Brown Thompson, as a Teacher of Common Schools, Academies, Institutes and Popular Singing Schools, in New Hampshire and Massachusetts, for Nearly Half a Century, or From 1827 to the Year 1875; With Brief Notice To My family, my friends, and my very many respected pupils, now scattered and settled in nearly every State of the Union, some of them holding positions of trust and responsibility, I take pride in dedicating these pages: I believe that they have not forgotten their old teacher: I cherish warm recollections of my schools and scholars: I have watched their progress and prosperity: My interest for the welfare of my pupils will continue unabated through life. Left much alone, in these late empty years, Life, (starved and dwindled,) tells its old tales o'er, And, like the wind, the Past sings in mine ears; But, like the wind, goes by. I believe that one of the chief sweets of memory is drawn from the melancholy which follows in its train;...

Reviews

This book is definitely worth acquiring. I have gone through and so I am certain that I will likely to read through again again in the future. Its been printed in an exceptionally basic way in fact it is only after I finished reading this publication in which actually altered me, change the way in my opinion.
