University Press of the Pacific. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 136 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 4.9in. x 0.5in. The most important responsibility in our Corps is leading Marines. If we expect Marines to lead and if we expect Marines to follow, we must provide the education of the heart and of the mind to win on the battlefield and in the barracks, in war and in peace. Traditionally, that education has taken many forms, often handed down from Marine to Marine, by word of mouth and by example. Our actions as Marines every day must embody the legacy of those who went before us. Their memorial to usYtheir teaching, compassion, courage, sacrifices, optimism, humor, humility, commitment, perseverance, love, guts, and gloryYis the pattern for our daily lives. This manual attempts to capture those heritages of the Marine Corpsf approach to leading. It is not prescriptive because there is no formula for leadership. It is not all-inclusive because to capture all that it is to be a Marine or to lead Marines defies pen and paper. Instead, it is intended to provide those charged with leading Marines a sense of the legacy they have inherited, and to help them come to terms with their own personal leadership style. The indispensable condition of Marine Corps leadership is action and attitude, not words. As one Marine leader said, gDonft tell me how good you are. Show me!h Marines have been leading for over 200 years and today continue leading around the globe. Whether in the field or in garrison, at the front or in the rear, Marines, adapting the time-honored values, traditions, customs, and history of our Corps to their generation, will continue to leadY and continue to win. This manual comes to life through the voices, writings, and examples of not one person,...
