This is the finest book i have got go through right up until now. I have got read and i also am confident that i am going to planning to read once again yet again in the future. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for about if you check with me).

Erin, Ontario, Canada: Porcupine's Quill, 2006. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. 1st Edition. Original printed wraps. 96 pp. Octavo. 'Riffing on memory: that is PK Page's method in Hand Luggage, a wonderful long poem nobody else could have written, meaning the original form as well as the autobiographical content. Some events are told out of chronological sequence; some minor characters -- a marmoset is one -- admittedly claim disproportionate space. The reader is relieved of much that a conventional autobiography would plod through. Hand Luggage carries a plentitude of penetrating observations and probing questions arising from richly varied cultural experience frankly and lovingly examined. It is a progression of incandescent moments caught in a poetic voice both assured and unassuming. 'Thank God for my eye, my insatiable eye,' says PK Page, 'it has seen me through much.' That sharp eye, always searching after vision, sees a reader through this book too, this surprising verse memoir of a 'borderland being' deeply pondering her life in society and in art.' -- Stan Dragland Printed offset by Tim Inkster on the Heidelberg KORD at the printing office of the Porcupine's Quill in the Village of Erin, Wellington County, Ontario, Canada. Smyth sewn into 16-page signatures with hand-tipped endleaves front and back. Signed by Author(s).
